

After a good gallop, there was a check where hounds lost the scent, so that gave the horses time to catch their breath, we checked our girths and the fox increased his lead ahead of the hounds.

