

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Your privacy is important to the Masters of Foxhounds Association of America (MFHA). This privacy statement provides information about the personal information that MFHA collects, and the ways in which MFHA uses that personal information.

This privacy statement

We created this privacy policy using a template available on Freenetlaw and created by SEQ Legal.

Personal information collection

MHFA may collect and use the following kinds of personal information when you shop on our site: information about each transaction, including the transaction amount, description, your name, address, phone and payment information.

Using personal information

We will not sell or rent your personal information to companies or individuals outside of MFHA.

Securing your data

MFHA will take reasonable technical and organizational precautions to prevent the loss, misuse or alteration of your personal information.

MFHA will store all the personal information you provide on its secure servers and payment information will be shredded after processing.

Cross-border data transfers

Information that MFHA collects may be stored and processed in and transferred between any of the countries in which MFHA operates to enable the use of the information in accordance with this privacy policy.

In addition, personal information that you submit for publication on the website will be published on the internet and may be available around the world.

You agree to such cross-border transfers of personal information.

Updating this statement

MFHA may update this privacy policy by posting a new version on this website.

You should check this page occasionally to ensure you are familiar with any changes.
